THE PARISH OF CORBRIDGE WITH HALTON & NEWTON HALL

Trinity 8 22nd July 2018

You are most welcome to our service this morning. Please stay after the service and chat to each other over coffee, juice and biscuits.

COLLECT FOR TRINITY 8:

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from Ephesians 2: 11 - end

So then, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called 'the uncircumcision' by those who are called 'the circumcision'—a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands— remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, so that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the market-places, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

We pray for:

- The sick, especially: John and Liz Sykes, Nicholas Craig, Ben Jackson, Meg Humphreys, John Graham and those known to us
- The family and friends of Neville Thowburn, Yvonne McCaffery, Henry Nixon and Tony Coates
- Joanna Walton and Phil Smith, Alice Dennison and Daniel Green, Sarah Murray and Steven Wall, Samuel Rose and Sarah Barratt whose banns are being read today.

A PRAYER FOR THE FUTURE: Guide with your heavenly wisdom David our new Incumbent, that he may be a wise and gentle shepherd of your people: ready to serve us with joy, to build us up in faith, and to lead us by example. God our Father, you have welcomed each one of us in Jesus and called us to be His Body in this place. Send your Holy Spirit on this parish as we prepare to welcome David and Janet. Amen

PATHWAYS MISSION: exciting mission opportunity in the Diocese of Newcastle 6-9 September 2018

Over the weekend, the Bishops of the Northern Province and their teams, led by Archbishop Sentamu, will be joining the Diocese to assist in our mission of growing church bringing hope. The weekend will begin on the Thursday afternoon with a Welcome and Commissioning service on Holy Island where invited deanery representatives will meet with the visiting Bishops and their teams before being sent out to their host Deaneries.

Each parish is being asked to organise mission activities, large or small, where the visiting teams can engage with people in local communities who would not usually attend church events. Pathways mission organisers are hoping for activities that will allow people to explore what faith in Jesus might mean to them.

The last day of the Pathways Mission will see three major services taking place in the diocese.

The services will feature a message from Archbishop Sentamu and guests will hear inspiring stories of faith and the chance to discover what Christianity could mean for them.

- Celebrating Hope Hexham, 4-5pm at the function Suite, Hexham Mart

The weekend is only one moment in our ongoing mission of growing church bringing hope. Our mission is already happening before the weekend and will continue after as we carry forward our commitment to sharing faith with those around us.

In the Deanery there will be a wide range of different events. A Saxon church trail will commence from Corbridge, we will hold a Messy

Church and there will possibly be a choral
Evensong here too.
